Flagship Europe Earns Top Food Supplier Award from Trade Monthly Magazine

Aurora, IL, USA, May 22, 2017 – UK-based Flagship Europe, an OSI Group company, has earned an esteemed award from Trade Monthly Magazine. Flagship’s passion for creating menu solutions that reflect world flavors and trends was acknowledged with the presentation of the award for Best Global Diversified Food Supplier–UK.

The accolade was presented earlier this year as part of the Trade Monthly Food & Drink 2017 Awards, which, according to the publication, are designed to recognize companies “whose devotion, innovative thinking, and tireless efforts have seen them achieve outstanding results.”

Flagship Europe has a prestigious customer base that includes key players within all sectors of the foodservice industry. The company supplies foodservice products across Europe including frozen poultry, sous vide items and pies, as well as mayonnaise, sauces and dressings.

Flagship Europe extended its presence in the food-to-go sector in 2016 following the acquisition of Calder Foods, a supplier of sandwich fillings, marinades, sauces, mayonnaise and dips.

OSI Group acquired Flagship Europe in December 2016.
